FIRE AT TRAXEL'S DESTROYS FLOUR AND DOES MUCH DAMAGE

Store House in the Rear of the Traxel Bakery Is Rather Badly Damaged By Fire—Soon Extinguished By Fire Ladders.

About ten o'clock Saturday morning the fire department was called to the Traxel Bakery to extinguish a fire which broke out in the store room of the large store and which had gained considerable headway before the arrival of the fire department.

Just how the fire was started is not known for certain. It is said that children were playing in the room with a candle and that in all probabilities this candle set fire to some of the very inflammable material therein atored.

A load of flour had just been placed in the store house from a large storage warehouse where carload lots of flour are kept stored and this load of flour was ruined by the blaze and the chemicals used by the fire company in extinguishing the blaze. There was also stored in the room a quantity of wrapping paper and a large amount of waxed paper wrappers used in wrapping bread, these burned rapidly and caused quite a blaze.

The prompt response of the fire department, however, prevented the blaze spreading to other parts of the large plant and the loss is not expected to be very large according to Mr. Traxel.

TEODY HOOK NOW IN HANDS OF LAWON FORGERY CHARGE

Boy Who Has Had a Very Checkered Career and For Whom the Officers of Many Cities Have Been Looking, Is Arrested by Constable.

Ernest C. Peebles, alias Teddy Hook was arrested last night at South Manchester by Constable John Mitchell, of the government dam section, and lodged in the county jail here on a charge of forgery and will be given a trial before Sheriff Fred Dresel on next Wednesday morning.

Peebles or Hook, as he is more familiarly known here, is the stopson of "Squire Hook," of the Plumville neighborhood, and has figured in many criminal escapades in Mason county heretofore. He was arrested some few years ago here on a charge of forgery and being under age he was sent to the State School of Reform. He was in that institution but a short time until he escaped. He was later heard from in Cincinnati when he was riding on an automobile with his brother. The brother fell from the running board of the machine and was killed.

Nothing more was heard of Teddy here until a few weeks ago private detectives came here from Portsmouth, Ohio, on the search of the young man having a warrant charging him with forging the name of a taxicab company in that city to a a

A few days ago he dropped into the R. M. Wallingford store in the Sixth Ward and represented himself as being a Mr. Thacker, of the Tollesboro neighborhood. After talking a while he purchased a small amount of groceries and offered a check for ten dollars. Mr. Wallingford cashed the check giving young Peebles the larger part of the amount in cash. The bank returned the check and the officials were notified.

It is on this charge that he will be tried next Wednesday. He may be later turned over to the Portsmouth, Ohio, officials, and it is understood that the authorities at the State Reform School are still looking for him.

GIRLS' BAND MEETS WITH HEARTY APPROVAL

Those desiring to be members of this organization should make application immediately.

Her husband died about ten years ago but she is survived by nine children. Burial will be made at the Wedona cemetery Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock with short services at the grave by Rev. A. F. Stahl, pastor of the Christian Church.

ORGANIZATION OF BUSINESS MEN IS VALUABLE ASSET

Maysville Chamber of Commerce is Worth Much to Every Phase of Our Civic Life—All Business Men Should Belong.

As no man would choose to live and bring up his family in a city in which there were no religious or moral organizations or influenza, so no businessman wants to remove to or continue in a community where there is not the proper civic pride, the right kind of educational facilities for his children, good homes, good streets, and all other things that go to make up a progressive and enlightened community.

Therefore, if there was no other reason than the immediate effect on business, there must still be an organization such as the Chamber of Commerce, through which the citizens may plan for accomplishments and assist in carrying them out.

The question of proper housing is a most important one; the development of streets and outlaying districts is not only necessary but presents a ready opportunity for the employment of large numbers of men who might otherwise be idle during the early stages of readjustment. Parkways, playgrounds and boulevards, extension of sewers and water mains; establishment of building zones and regulation of the king of buildings that shall be built on certain streets; health and sanitation; public utilities, and public schools are all matters of vital interest in a great or less degree to every citizen of Maysville and must continue to be an obligation and an important part of the activities of the organization.

As the Chamber of Commerce found, when it became necessary, that they could devote a large portion of their time and energy during the past two years to the prosecution of the war, just so much additional time will they be able to matters like the before mentioned, during the next six or eight months.

From every progressive citizen that visits Maysville and comes in touch with the Chamber of Commerce, we hear nothing but the highest praise for the splendid organization of business men and the up-to-date quarters they have. We who have been in more intimate touch with the organization and the work they have accomplished, desire to stamp our approval upon splendid management and hope for its continued and increased support by our citizens. The more support the organization receives, the greater the opportunity for rendering additional service.

BIG SHOW IN TOWN

Oh Sammy is the big attraction at the Washington Theater tonight and the advance sale of tickets shows that there will be a large crowd to witness the first musical comedy that has come to Maysville this season. This sort of show always attracts people from all over this territory and many out-of-town people have already reserved their seats.

MUST ORDER NITRATE TODAY

All who desire to have a part of the government shipment of Nitrate of Soda, which is coming to Mason county must make application to County Agent George Kirk before he closes his office this evening for at that time he will order by telegraph only as much of the nitrate as has been purchased by Mason county farmers.

MANY SCHOOLS IN COUNTY WILL NOT BE REOPENED THIS YEAR

County Board of Education Decides That Schools That Cannot Reopen Within Six Weeks of the Close of the Term Shall Not Be Re-opened at All.

A rather lively session of the County Board of Education was held Saturday morning at the office of County Superintendent George H. Turnipseed to decide just what to do in handling the county school problem which this year, as never before, has been a major issue.

The main question to be settled by the board members today was the question of whether or not schools in the county which have lost so much time because of the influenza epidemic should be re-opened during the present term. The board was considerably split up on the question. Several were of the opinion that the year was practically lost to the students and that there should be no attempt to re-open while others were of the opinion that schools should be re-opened as soon as possible.

After threshing the question out thoroughly the board decided that no school now closed should be re-opened for the present season if they were closed within six weeks of the close of the term or in other words unless schools could get more than six weeks of work in before closing time, they should not open at all this year.

The board decided that the local trustee, the County Health Officer and the neighborhood physician should constitute a committee to decide when schools should re-open and when close because of the disease.

As the Chamber of Commerce found, when it became necessary, that they could devote a large portion of their time and energy during the past two years to the prosecution of the war, just so much additional time will they be able to matters like the before mentioned, during the next six or eight months.

From every progressive citizen that visits Maysville and comes in touch with the Chamber of Commerce, we hear nothing but the highest praise for the splendid organization of business men and the up-to-date quarters they have. We who have been in more intimate touch with the organization and the work they have accomplished, desire to stamp our approval upon splendid management and hope for its continued and increased support by our citizens. The more support the organization receives, the greater the opportunity for rendering additional service.

MAYSVILLE HIGH TAKES ONE SIDED GAME FROM BRACKEN BOYS YESTERDAY
The Maysville High School Basket Ball team journeyed to Augusta, the metropolis of Bracken county Friday night for a game of basket ball with the Augusta High School. The game resulted in a score of 42 to 2 in favor of Maysville. The teams were about equal in size and the game was very spirited though one-sided. About twenty Maysville boys with Prof. C. S. Dale made the trip to Augusta in Capron's truck.

BRIGHT YOUNG LIFE TAKES ITS FLIGHT

Nannie Keith Boulden Died Last Night After Week's Illness of Pneumonia.

In the deep-felt sympathy of the entire community for the bereaved household, from which the bright, sweet spirit of Nannie Keith, took its flight Friday evening at 6:30 is attested the influence of a life short in years but abounding in characteristics of a mature nature to a pronounced degree.

Truly, the Master, whom she so beautifully revered, chose a shining light when she became a glorified child in heavenly realms, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven. After a week's illness of pneumonia she passed away at the hour mentioned leaving her parents, Mr. and J. P. Boulden and small brother to mourn her untimely end.

In the passing of her young life we well recall how we were impressed when she was in our midst of many unusual traits for one of her years. Chief among which was her unfailing greeting of elderly folks and careful inquiries as to their health. By her conscientious manner and devotion to her Sunday School, she long held a warm place in the heart of her teacher's affections; and as she tripped in and out among her neighbors she endeared herself so strongly by her quiet lovable ways that we all feel that to know her was to love her; and that her brief life of nine years was indeed well spent.

MAYOR'S TRIP SAVES CITY MONEY IN STREET SETTLEMENT EFFECTED

Mayor Thomas M. Russell, Chairman William Watkins, of the Internal Improvement Committee of City Council and Miss Mary Helman, Secretary to the Mayor, were in Lexington Friday where an agreement was reached with the Cary-Reed Construction Company over a settlement made by the company over the construction of asphalt streets in the Sixth Ward. The agreement reached will probably save the city from $200 to $500. Returning Friday night in the Mayor's large car, the machine ran over an embankment near the city when the colored driver was blinded by the bright lights of an approaching car. The party escaped injury and little damage was done the Russell car.

This week's sales brings the total amount of tobacco sold on the Maysville market this season to nearly ten thousand pounds or more than half the amount sold during all of the season last year. To exact the total sales for the season up to Friday evening amounted to $9,456,635 pounds. Supervisor Mitchell's report says:

"During the week which closed Friday evening the weight is on the Maysville tobacco market at 2,997,025 pounds of tobacco at a general average of $36.95. The tobacco is only of medium quality. OBLIGATION FACES CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

Must Christianize Reconstruction Forces.

METHODIST CENTENARY TASK

Great Convention at Columbus Emphasizes Far-Reaching Movement Not Simply to Raise Eighty Million Dollars.

Columbus, Jan. 23.—A two-fold obligation facing the Christian churches at this hour was outlined to the Methodist Centenary convention of the Cincinnati area, at its opening evening session, by Dr. L. B. Bowers, member of the national campaign committee of the Centenary organization. This obligation is:

First—The Christianization of the processes of reconstruction.

Second—The conservation and harnessing of spiritual forces generated through this world struggle to a program for the conquest of the world for democracy and righteousness.

The Centenary area convention, which began its session Wednesday afternoon, with a "college of methods," will continue until Friday night. Almost 5,000 Methodist men, embracing 1,600 ministers and representatives of 3,000 churches throughout Ohio, southern Indiana and Kentucky, have been brought together to consider "ways and means" to make the Centenary movement of the utmost effectiveness throughout the church. In many respects, the convention is considered one of the most important ever held by Methodists within this area.

"Must Show What We Mean."

"The church is face to face with the opportunity 'to do something or to commit suicide,'" was the stirring sentence used by Dr. Ralph S. Cushing.

WHAT IS THE METHODIST CENTENARY MOVEMENT?

DR. F. I. Johnson, Mansfield, Executive Secretary Cincinnati Area, Methodist Centenary.

"The Methodist Centenary is the most far-reaching movement undertaken by a modern Protestant Church. It is not simply to raise the sum of eighty million dollars for a vast extension of church work to meet the obligations we now face at home and abroad; neither is it simply a great birthday celebration, culminating in the great exposition to be held in Columbus in June; although both of these are very important parts of it.

"The great problem following the war is to make 'democracy safe for the world.' The world can never be made safe for democracy while two-thirds of the earth does not have Jesus Christ. The deeper object of the Centenary lies in so intensifying the life of the Methodist people that they will devote themselves to the accomplishment of this program at home and abroad."

Beginning in the center of the road to James Selby, thence with Selby's line up Flat Fork N. 30 1/2 W. 4:25 chains to a stone in the fence; N. 35 W. 6:47 chains to a point on the East side of Flat Fork; thence crossing Flat Fork S. 84 W. 66 links to a hawk bush on the West side of the Creek; thence up the Creek, N. 18 1/2 E. 6:32 chains to a fence post N. 35 21 1/4 E. 13:20 chains to the fence post in Mike O'Neil's line thence with his line S. 60 1/2 E. 1:57 chains to a point on the East bank of said Creek; thence N. 38 E. 4:2 chains to a stone at the end of a stone fence, corner to Gullifoyle; thence with his line S. 52 1/2 E. 5:14 chains to a hackberry, S. 50 1/2 E. 4:76 chains to a fence post; N. 79 1/2 E. 18 chains to a stone on the West side of the pike; thence down the pike S. 56% W. 7:33 chains to a point on the East margin; S. 53 1/2 W. 14 chains to the center of same; S. 57 1/2 W. 19:52 chains to a point on the West margin; S. 55 W. 10:32 chains to the beginning, containing 42 1/2 acres, leaving in the part he sold in this action 28 acres 3 rods and 20 poles.

MAY WIN OR LOSE MILLIONS FOR CHRIST

Bishop Warne's Message.

THE OPPORTUNITY IS NOW

Centenary Call is For Vision, Declare Speakers at Great Convention in Columbus—Marvelous Awakening in India Described.

Columbus, Jan. 25.—Now is the time to win for Christ the fifty millions of India's depressed classes. They are moving toward Him. We may have them or lose them—as we will."

This was the striking "call to arms" brought to the closing session of the Methodist Centenary (Cincinnati area) convention at Memorial hall Friday evening by Bishop F. W. Warne of India. A stirring address brought home to his hearers the bishop's conviction that if Christianity is to be the faith of India's millions, America's people must move quickly to bring it its message. In this regard, Bishop Warne but reflected the views of many other leaders who have studied the world-situation as it now presents itself.

"India's loyalty during the war has been second to none. It no other country, in proportion to the population have the forces of sedition been so small, and have all classes, willing

"In the Hollow of Her Hand" Alice Brady's latest Select Picture will be seen at the Gem Theater on Monday. The story deals with Hatty Castleton, a young English girl, who falls in love with Challis Wrangell. In a scene at an inn she learns of his marriage and kills him in self-defense. She is protected from the law by his wife, who tries to marry Hatty off to her brother-in-law, but Hatty is in love with an artist and refuses to marry him. to make the life sacrifice, joined the cause of the allies," said Bishop Warne, who described heroic acts of the armies from India.

Turning to conditions in India, Bishop Warne discussed the great spiritual awakening towards Christianity—an awakening which has been the marvel of Christian leaders.

Bishop Warne said: "This movement has swept on, gradually increasing in force and expansion until in the Methodist church alone—to say nothing of others—we are baptizing about 40,000 converts a year, and holding back about 200,000 on our waiting list. There has never been anything else such a situation in church history. These great multitudes are being held back for lack of missionaries and money to train and support Indian workers, and this unprecedented situation furnishes one of the strongest reasons for the centenary call for the consecration of the young life of our churches in Christian America and a call to the whole church for sufficient

"The great problem following the war is to make 'democracy safe for the world.' The world can never be made safe for democracy while two-thirds of the earth does not have Jesus Christ. The deeper object of the Centenary lies in so intensifying the life of the Methodist people that they will devote themselves to the accomplishment of this program at home and abroad;"

"Facing a new spirit of consecration, through its four-fold program of the stewardship of prayer, of life, of intercession and of education."

Must Register in Rural Life.

"The sad commentary on traditional church activity is that it has failed to register in the life of the rural community," said Professor Paul L. Vogt, head of the rural work department of the board of home missions of the M. E. church.

Dr. Vogt called attention to the constant drain upon the leadership resources of the country because of the marked disparity in standards of living between the rural and urban communities. In one of the best districts of Methodism, he said, 50 per cent of the Methodist leaders were college graduates in the urban communities, while but 8 per cent of those in the rural churches were college graduates.

funds to meet this great emergency."

Bishop Warne and other speakers of the convention presented a vivid picture of the similar situation in other parts of the world, and at home. Resources of men and money to meet the emergency are provided now, or the opportunity passes, they declared.

CENTENARY CALL IS FOR VISION.

"The clamor of the centenary is not merely for eighty millions of money," declared Dr. John W. Hanmer, director of centenary area organizations. "That is a clarion call, but the centenary clamor is for vision. The centenary folks would have the church see far down the vales of progress; far up the mountains of hope; far over the plains of conquest; far out on the bosons of opportunity's great sea; they would have the great body of Christ militant hark back to Calvary and Gedsemane through historic memory, and then to Armistice and immortality through boundless faith."

"No sturdier program ever was promulgated than the stewardship of property, the stewardship of service, the stewardship of life, the fellowship of intercession," declared Dr. Hanmer. "It all stands forth under the brotherhood of man, and that marks back to the Fatherhood of God."

"The morning is big with hope when men really consider human life a trust and themselves its responsible stewards. That done, it is not difficult to recognize one's stewardship over properties to which one holds title," he continued.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Maysville Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are weak. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Weak kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, suggest weak kidneys and warn you of the danger of dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease. In that case Doan's Kidney Pills have been endorsed by thousands.

Here is a statement of a nearby resident:

Jas. M. Newton, Gum St., Aherdeen, Ohio, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years and have been greatly benefited. Whenever my back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Newton had. 600 all stores.

CONTRACTS FOR MANY SCHOOL HOUSES HELD UP

Director of Public Works Division of the Education Service of U. S. Labor Department Makes Statement.

(Statement by F. T. Miller, Director, Division of Public Works and Construction Development.)

Contracts for 800 public school houses, totaling some eighty million dollars, have been held up as a result of the war, according to a partial tabulation of building conditions throughout the United States, which has been made by the Statistical Section of the Division of Public Works and Construction Development, U. S. Department of Labor. It is estimated that the completed tabulation will show that these school projects, now being held in abeyance, aggregate more than one hundred million dollars.

In round numbers, this is about one dollar per capita throughout the United States. As school buildings are customarily financed on twenty-year serial bonds, this means an installment payment of about five cents per capita per year by the people of this country. If they would have their school program put through at the present time.

Assuming that a decrease of twenty per cent. in construction costs might develop during the next four or five years (and this is regarded by many as a maximum decrease), the immediate completion of the Nation's school program would involve an excess of only one cent per capita per year over the per capita cost, even if construction were delayed for several years.

The educators of the country ask, shall the country have its schools now, at five cents per capita per year, or delay having them for four or five years in order to buy them at four cents per capita per year?

To interest the Nation in forwarding this particular work is one of the undertakings of this new division of the Department of Labor. In this purpose it has the support not only of educators, but of sociologists. They believe that the nation-wide task of public school accommodations, which is known to all, is one of the earliest problems that must be solved with others that belong to the reconstruction period.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered from an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night... I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui... .

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed all day and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stopped down I was not able to straighten up again... I decided I would try Cardui... .

By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial.

TWO NIGHTS, STARTING

84th DIVISION IS
DUE IN THE U. S. A.
ON FEBRUARY 1st

1800 Men From 327th Field Artillery Will Arrive at Newport News on Battleship—Maysville Men In Contingent.

Washington, January 24—The battleship is due at Newport News February 1 with about 1,000 men, and the transport Mallory is expected to reach New York January 31 with 1,800 men of the 327th Field Artillery and a number of casualties and wounded.

The 327th Field Artillery is the heavy artillery regiment of the 84th Division. It is commanded by Colonel Frederick Johnston. Originally the 327th was composed of troops from Springfield and Sangamon, Macoupin, Christian, Shelby, Montgomery, Fayette, Effingham and Moultrie counties, Illinois. This only half filled the regiment, however, and after the Field Artillery Brigade left Camp Zachary Taylor in April last year to complete its training at the Field Artillery Firing Center, West Point, the organization was brought to war strength by the addition of Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio drafts.

The 327th was the first to break camp at West Point, and left for Camp Mills, Long Island, early in September sailing shortly thereafter.

The 327th is a motorized regiment, its 6-inch howitzers being moved by caterpillar tractors. Its training was done at West Point with British 4.7 inch howitzers and the regiment was to have been supplied with American 6-inch gunniers overseas, the 327th, however, never got into action. Apparently it returns intact with 1,800 men none having been drafted as replacement troops, as was the case with the infantry organizations of the 84th Division.

Several Maysville and Mason county men located at Camp Taylor were assigned with the 84th when they sailed for France.

WHEN AND WHERE WILL IT END?

The influenza situation in Fleming is more alarming than ever before. It is useless to try to camouflage conditions. There are hundreds of cases right here in West Fleming and some of them are proving fatal. There are one or more cases in about half the families in Ewing and the same is true in the Snow Hill, Blue Lick and Burks sections. Cowan, which was hit hardest in November and December seems to be partially escaping now.

The people are helpless; medical science seems to be powerless; all we can do is pray and be as careful as possible—Ewing Inquirer.

GRAVES OF HEROES
ALONG SIDE OF THE ROADS IN ITALY

Roads In Northern Italy Pass Thru a Veritable Grave Yard Where Soldiers Lie Buried.

The war was over for them, even before Austria capitulated and Germany sued for peace—these men whose graves line the roads in Northern Italy. They fought the good fight, fought it through days of adversity, when, in common with their allies in arms in France, fortune seemed to frown upon them—fought it to the moment when a shell or a bullet sounded, for each war's last call. And their graves line the roads in Italy, from the Plavo to the Tagliamento, and beyond.

During the early days of November American Red Cross trucks and ambulances and ambulances rushed over all these roads, carrying loads of food for the almost famished civil population. The Austrian army was routed! The Austrian army was surrendering! Austria was suing for peace—peace at the allies terms!

And during the succeeding days and weeks the Red Cross cars continued to churn through the dust or the mud or the snow over all these roads of Northern Italy. The Austrians had left no food, in simple truth they had none to leave. The country was practically destitute. Save for the supplies brought by the Red Cross the people had almost nothing to eat. And, on the heels of Austria's surrender came the German plea for an armistice; the cessation of hostilities on the western front in France. And the rows of graves in unutilized fields beside the roads in Northern Italy, where the Red Cross cars went by, seemed to have an added sublimity, an added pathos. They called to the mind's eye pictures of other graves, from the North Sea to the Adriatic, in deserts and mountains and far corners of the earth. In the cities there was music and celebration and festivity, but the roads up in the north of Italy were cold and lonely and dreary. Only military outfits and refugees and returning prisoners were passing—and constant lines of trucks carrying food and clothing. There was suffering and hunger—but relief was being given.

Still there were hardships—but the guns were silent. The war was over and right had won! And the Red Cross men saluted as they passed the lonely graves on the remote roads up in Northern Italy—the graves that with the others from the North Sea to the Adriatic gave the victory.

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH IN MOUNTAIN SCHOOL FIRE

Teacher and Three Boys Burned to Death When Fire Destroyed Dormitory of Pine Mountain Settlement School.

Harlan, Ky., January 24.—Miss Edith Scott, of New York, teacher in the school since September, and three boys, Gilbert Walker, Almon Huff, and Landis Hall, all under fifteen years of age were burned to death early Friday morning when Burkham Hall, at the Pine Mountain Settlement School in Harlan county, was destroyed by fire. One of the boys lost his life while trying to rescue Miss Scott from the burning building. A boy named Culahan, who jumped from a window two stories from the ground, was severely injured, and other children were also hurt in attempting to escape.

The fire started about 2:30 o'clock Friday morning, probably from a defective furnace, and everything in the hall, which served as a dormitory for about twenty boys and several teachers, was destroyed, the occupants being unable to save their clothes. The entire building burned in an hour, but none of the cottages, dormitories or other buildings caught fire. When Miss Scott and the boys were discovered to be missing it was thought that they might have wandered into the woods in the confusion, as the school buildings are near Pine Mountain, a distance from any town.

FORMER CITIZEN STANDS HIGH AS COTTON AUTHORITY

Mr. J. W. Evans, former Maysvillean, is highly honored by being called on important Conference.

Mr. J. W. Evans, former well known Maysville man, now head of the Texas Cotton Association has been signally honored by being called to Washington for an important conference on cotton.

A Houston, Texas, newspaper says: Leaving Houston tomorrow, Messrs. J. W. Evans, John T. Scott and A. L. Neims go to Washington where on January 17 and 18 they will attend a conference of cotton growers, cotton factors, spinners and bankers.

At the conference it is expected to formulate a plan to standardize the cotton trade of the world and to institute measures to meet new conditions imposed by peace and the reconstruction of international commerce.

The conference is really a sort of prelude to an international conference which will be held this summer in some Southern city (perhaps Houston), to which delegates will be invited from every nation with which the United States has reciprocal trade relations.

This second conference is expected to determine the terms governing the exporting of cotton. Under previous conditions, each nation has required special conditions, some of them onerous and expensive to American shippers. Standardizing conditions of shipping will be sought.

The Washington conference came about through the suggestion of Eastern spinners, who enlisted the interest of the national and state governments in the meeting. Five delegates were named by the secretary of agriculture. Governors of each of the cotton growing states named delegates and the important cotton exchanges selected representatives. Houston, Dallas and Galveston being the Texas exchanges represented. Banks are also to be represented at the conference.

The three Houston delegates will be sponsors for the following interests: J. W. Evans, Texas Cotton Association; John T. Scott, Southern bankers, and A. L. Neims, the Houston Cotton Exchange.

FARMERS STRIPPING TOBACCO

Local warehousemen are not expecting such a rush of tobacco on the Maysville market the first of next week as they experienced the first of last week. A large number of the tobacco growers took advantage of the damp weather to bulk down a large amount of their tobacco that was still hanging in the barns and it is expected they will pay much attention during the next few days to stripping out this remaining leaf.

Representative M. K. Johnston, Richland county, introduced a bill making it lawful to kill foxes throughout the year.

The House had before it today a resolution, passed by the Senate yesterday, urging that returning soldiers be landed at some port other than New York, because William Randolph Hearst has been appointed chairman of the New York Reception Committee.

PLANS FOR A NEW LEAGUE OF NATIONS GIVEN

Peace Conference Votes Openly On Programs For World Society of Nations.

Paris, January 25.—Discussion of the League of Nations was expected to form the principal business of the second session of the Peace Congress, which met in the Quai d'Orsay today.

Other subjects which had been whipped into shape for open debate during this week's sittings of the "Steering Committee," were responsibility and punishment for the war; reparation for war damages; international labor legislation; internationalization of certain ports, waterways and railways and the procedure for bringing territorial questions before the delegates.

Correspondents were admitted at today's session in observance with meetings to one open meeting.

Premier Lloyd George was to begin debates on the League of Nations by presenting the British plan. Whether the American program would be brought forward also, was uncertain.

It is understood both the British and American plans, according to the latest modifications, provide to an enlarged and improved Hague Tribunal.

The principal provisions of the British scheme are understood to include establishment of a high court to settle international disputes with enforcement of its findings by public opinion rather than super-national "police force," some form of disarmament; cancellation of all treaties which would interfere with the working of the league; formation of a board to pass on international labor problems and exclusion of the central powers until they had proven their fitness for membership.

OHIO SOLOON WOULD FIGHT THE INFLUENZA

Ohio Representatives Refuse to Pass Resolution Under Suspended Rules.

Columbus, Ohio, January 24.—Further delay was expected today on a resolution by Representative George West, Tuscarawas county, urging Congress to appropriate $5,000,000 to fight the flu.

West sought yesterday to have the House pass the resolution without delay, under a suspension of rules. Other members voted against this.

Although the House decided to meet today instead of adjourning for the week-end as the Senate did, few members remained in Columbus today and little business was likely to be accomplished.

Representative M. K. Johnston, Richland county, introduced a bill making it lawful to kill foxes throughout the year.

The House had before it today a resolution, passed by the Senate yesterday, urging that returning soldiers be landed at some port other than New York, because William Randolph Hearst has been appointed chairman of the New York Reception Committee.

WESLEYAN COLLEGE DEFEATS M. H. S. GIRLS

The girls' Basketball team of the Maysville High School went to Winchester Friday night for a game with the girls' club of Kentucky Wesleyan College. The locals were defeated by a score of 44 to 11 but the M. H. S. girls put up a good game and can be proud of the record they made against a college team.

The County Commissioners met at the County Infirmary today and inspected the farm finding it in perfect condition and operated well. Superintendent Rosser is the man for the place and things are always in first-class shape at the farm.

REVIVAL GROWS IN INTEREST; AT- TENDANCE GROWS

Most Inspiring Service of the Series Held Last Night When Pastor Evangelist Preached on "The Closed Door."

The most inspiring service of the campaign was that at the Third Street M. E. Church Friday evening. The sermon on "The Closed Door" was so earnestly and powerfully delivered that it made a deep impression on the audience. The line of difference between those who have entered the door and those who are not ready were so plainly drawn that not one could fail to find where he or she stood. It was a sermon calculated to make folks think, and to think seriously. The pastor is trying earnestly to put the burden of the success of the meetings upon the hearts of the membership. The preacher may preach earnest, heart-searching sermons, and the chorus may sing their very best, yet if there is no response in prayer and effort on the part of the church the desired harvest will not come.

The largest chor of the meeting was present last evening. About fifteen men were in the male chorus that sang with such success "The Church in the Wildwood." In all the chorus singing the harmony was fine. The leader/Mr. Dodds was more than pleased with the response and is greatly encouraged at the prospect for the increased success of the chorus for next week's meetings.

Services this evening at 7:30. A mixed quartet composed of the Misses Jones and Messrs. Carpenter and Richardson will sing "Jesus Leads."

The theme for the sermon will be "A Call to Repentance." Saturday night is a good night to go to church. Do not miss this helpful service. Then be ready for a big day Sunday. The musical program for Sunday will be the best yet.

"KULTUR"

TUESDAY, JAN. 28th

CITIZENS:

In the new Wm. Fox production, Mrs. Brockwell has a role which graphically portrays the incidents leading up to this World War.

This is an absorbing photoplay that treats only of events that brought on the great struggle. It shows in thrilling scenes the intrigues of the German War Lord and a part played by a beautiful woman, who through hate, brought to a head the deadly Teuton plot that resulted in the rape of democracy. There is not a moment throughout this wonderful film that does not thrill with true dramatic action. I am sure after seeing it, you will say "Kultur" is one of the most stirring photoplays ever filmed.

Come yourself and bring your friends. This picture is a rare treat at a price of 10c and 15c.
